December 11, 1992

Community Educational Service Council, Inc. (CESCI) hereby respectfully requests to file a Motion for Acceptance of Untimely Filing. CESCI is filing concurrently with this motion an Opposition to Petition to Deny, filed on October 21, 1992 by James Madison University against CESCI's mutually exclusive application for construction permit, BPED-920511MB.

CESCI is proceeding with the application process without the benefit of counsel, and therefore was ill-informed, until now, as to the proper procedure and timing required with this Opposition to Petition to Deny. CESCI has been in the process of preparing this reply, and has used much of the time gathering evidence.

We believe that the untimely filing of this opposition is important and relevant to the reputation of CESCI and does not
